Meeting the Needs of Diverse Learners

Presenter

Julie Curry

Target Audience

Teachers K-12

Date and Time

July 9, 2014
9:00-1:00

Location

Liberty High School
6300 Independence Avenue
Bealeton, VA 22712
Phone: 540-422-7360

Class Description

The course will explore instructional strategies designed to promote high level achievement for diverse populations.

Participants will investigate and experience strategies that will:

- Capitalize on students’ strengths
- Match instructional methods to students’ instructional needs
- Increase student motivation, interest and engagement

Strategies will be presented with classroom samples/examples enabling participants to apply them immediately.

About the Instructor

Julie Curry has been in education for forty years. She taught for 28 years before becoming the Induction Specialist for Warren County Public Schools. During her eight years as the Induction Specialist, she created and implemented Warren County’s new teacher induction program. Julie has presented staff development workshops/seminars for area school divisions as well as teaching for LFCC. She is currently the LFCC Educational Consortium Specialist.